CAT TALES

Majae, black leopard, and Sebastian, male tiger, have recently moved to the publictour. Majae is located at the beginning of the public tour. He was rescued from Green Country substandard facility eight years ago along with four othercats. All of the cats were in a horriblestate upon arrival. They were extremelythin, they had missing patches of fur and cuts and scrapes covering theirbodies.

Aswith most leopards, Majae is not people friendly but he is enjoying his newarea because it has a variety of platforms he can spend time on while lazingthe day away. Make sure you take a peekat Majae but don't be surprised if he does not look back.

Sebastian is also new to the public tour but notnew to the center. He is a beautifulorange tiger that was rescued from New York State just over two years ago. When you meet Sebastian you will notice thathis right eye is missing. He had suffered an eye injury at his previousplacement. Because it had not be treated, he was not able to keep the eye. He has also suffered a medical problem withhis left eye so his vision status is uncertain at this time. Sebastian displays a very sweet personalitytowards staff and visitors by coming to the fence to chuff his hello.

NEW RESIDENTS

Therescue center is proud to announce the arrival of two tigers. Rajahn, male tiger, and Keirhan, femaletiger, arrived on July 3 from a roadside zoo in Iowa. Rajahn is the younger of the two atfour-years-old. Keirhan is eleven. Both are orange and are making the adjustment to their new forever home. Because theywere brought to the center, their living conditions at their previous placement unknown. Upon their arrival, theywere in good health and continue to do well.
