KAYLA-YELLOW LEOPARD

Kayla, yellow leopard, came to the center via Long Island, New York. When guests encounter Kayla, they are more than likely to hear her before they see her. She will greet guests with a growl and then proceed to roll around on the ground. Kayla's behavior can lead folks to believe that she is a very friendly cat but do not be fooled. Kayla is a wild carnivore that would have no problem displaying her true power.

MICKEY-MALE WHITE TIGER

Mickey, male white tiger, came from Oklahoma along with nine other cats. He currently lives with Jade and Bonnie, orange female tigers. When Mickey arrived, it was noted that he has crossed eyes but it does not limit him in anyway. Staff reports that Mickey is just the happiest cat at the center. He enjoys spending time at the fence visiting his next door neighbor Cera, female lion. Make sure you spend some time visiting with Mickey when you visit the center. You cannot help but smile when you see the handsome boy.

MERCHANDISE

Share your love of the BIG CATS at the EFRC by purchasing and wearing our 25th anniversary t-shirt. BC, Molly and Kiki were the cats that started it all. This print is also available in a hoodie and a sweatshirt.
